Who we are

The Friends is an independent non-profit, incorporated society that has a formal relationship with the NFSA. It is the visible public community of NFSA supporters.

As one of the nation's great cultural institutions, the NFSA preserves and provides access to our heritage of film, recorded sound, radio, television and new media. The Friends is for those who wish to

- Enjoy the NFSA collection and its curatorial knowledge
- Contribute their energy and enthusiasm in volunteer work
- Advocate for the NFSA's needs
- Get behind the scenes of the NFSA's work
- Learn about preservation
- Meet other Friends at special events

Friends can also join online at

<http://www.archivefriends.org.au>

There are tangible benefits from Friends' membership:

- Discounts at the NFSA on-line shop
- Discounts on admission to NFSA screenings, the Thornbury Picture House, and other events
- Regular newsletter
- Entry to regular Friends' events, including presentations, talks, "white glove" evenings, screenings
- Entry to events organised by other Friends' associations
- Social contact with other Friends
- A growing and interactive Friends' website
